FAMILIAR TRADITIONS AND NEW WONDERS

More than anyone, you know the wonders and memories of the Christmas season don't just happen. They're created. You create them when you lift a child to put the topper on the tree. Or when you welcome the messes of baking holiday treats. You create them when you gather your favorite people to celebrate traditions passed down through generations. When you make lists, share gifts, give back—and get wrapped up in the joy of it all—together.

But you don't stop there. You're hard at work creating new traditions for your loved ones to enjoy. Because for you, the magic of Christmas is new every year, and you want to pass that wonder along. We get that. It's how we feel, too. And it's why we work so hard to create Keepsake Ornaments that celebrate everything from nostalgic favorites to new wonders, magic moments to merry minis, and so much more. Our Keepsake Studio of artists' love for holiday traditions shows up in the details of each ornament they create. And there's a story behind them all, whether they're inspired by their own Christmas memories—or maybe even by the ones you've shared with them.

So...everything you do to make the holidays memorable? Never doubt that it matters. You'll hear it in the laughter of those you've gathered as you share the stories behind each ornament you unbox. You'll see it in the eyes of children as they watch a magic ornament come to life with light, sound and motion. And you'll feel it...you'll all feel it...surrounding you, filling you, warming you. It's that familiar comfort mixed with a renewed sense of wonder. It's unforgettable but somehow unexpected. You create that. And every single year, the Keepsake Studio looks forward to being a part of your holiday magic.

The power of laughter

For his new series, Gregor Benedetti will showcase Christmas as seen through the eyes of this adorable little odd couple, Gnaughty and Gnice, hoping their future festive antics and merry misadventures will bring you and your family a laugh or two.

“Humor is important every day, but it’s especially important during the holidays,” Gregor says, “because laughter has the power to bring us together no matter how different we are. These little characters will show that despite their differences, they can sit back, relax and have a good laugh together. And they would wish the same for all of us.”

"For this magic carousel, I thought of myself as the designer-builder of an elegant royal ride fit for a princess. I wanted it to be something the princesses would enjoy, so I gave each her own special ride along the cobblestone path, framed under the canopy of the carousel."

Disney stories and characters have inspired Keepsake artists for decades, and bringing them to life through Keepsake Ornaments never gets old.

“Now we’re celebrating Disney fans by highlighting favorite attractions and memorable experiences from Disney Parks so you can commemorate your trips,” says Art Director Charles Young. “Last year we introduced The Haunted Mansion, featuring everyone’s favorite ghosts, and this year you’ll find Disney Mickey Mouse riding in a vintage Autopia vehicle.”

“While I can’t reveal next year’s designs, fans can look forward to favorite Disney Parks attractions and experiences interpreted in fun and unique ways with great sculpted detail, storytelling and technology.”

Who's your hero?

The Keepsake Studio wants to help you celebrate the heroes who are making a difference in the world every single day. So we've created these ornaments to honor them. To let them know that what they do matters. And to share a gift of gratitude. We hope they'll help you create a memory your heroes will treasure for years to come when they decorate their trees.

Add to your Star Trek Storytellers collection

The magic of the Star Trek™ Mirror, Mirror Collection continues this year with two new ornaments, and if you haven't started your set yet, now's the perfect time to get them all! "I was really honored to work on the U.S.S. Enterprise Tree Topper," says Keepsake Artist Jake Angell, "and it was fun working with other passionate fans of the show from the Keepsake Studio. The original Star Trek was in reruns when I was a kid, so it's cool to see how the lights and sound turned out on that ship I used to watch on TV."

An interactive Death Star is born

Keepsake artists are always focused on innovation, so Orville Wilson was excited to work on this Death Star tree topper with new capabilities. "I put a Star Wars tree up every year," he says, "and I always wished my tree topper could play with the other Storytellers ornaments." This year, Orville's wish comes true. "It has a much bigger presence and a lot more detail than the original," he shares, "It lights up really well and interacts with the new 2021 Storytellers ornaments." Orville gives credit to everyone who collaborated to bring the technology together. "It took a team to make it happen, and I can't wait to add it to my tree."

SMALL JOYS, BIG SMILES

Not everyone has room for a huge tree, and let's face it, miniature trees and ornaments are adorable. Keepsake Studio Creative Director Jim Tronoski says, "I'm a huge fan of miniatures." (See what he did there?) "I put up a couple mini trees every year. I love that they're compact, and I can put them in different places around the house."

Keepsake Artist Nina Aubé has collected miniature objects since she was a child. She shares, "My mini trees are loaded with birds and critters, of course. There's just something magical about tiny objects, especially when they have as much detail as our ornaments do." We hope you'll find something magical in our miniatures, too. And that each little detail will help you add more merry to your home this Christmas.

KEEPSAKE GIFTS ADD FUN TO THE SEASON

No one loves Christmas more than Keepsake fans. That's why we're bringing you a few special extras, so you can show your holiday spirit Keepsake-style. Or surprise that special someone who would keep the Christmas decorations up all year long if it were up to them (and why isn't it, by the way?).

We hope these gifts will bring you a few smiles, encourage you to pause and enjoy those merry moments you're creating, and remind you to put your feet up now and then. Because those merry moments are becoming treasured memories. And that's something to celebrate.

A message from the Keepsake Studio

As we come to the end of the 2021 Dream Book, we want to say thank you. It's because of you that we have the privilege of creating Keepsake Ornaments. It's because of you that we get to think about celebrating Christmas every single day. In our minds, that makes us the luckiest people in the world. So with each Keepsake Ornament you buy, please know that we are so very honored to be included in your family's traditions. That it's you who inspires us to keep creating and innovating. That your stories are important to us. We want to hear them. We want to help you tell them. Because your stories and your memories are at the heart of everything we do.
